Dear Parent/Guardian

30 March 2010
SM/SPW

As the climax to the Japanese Culture Elective, the students and I would very much like to sample authentic cuisine in the final week. To this end, I am proposing a trip to Leicester's 'Little Tokyo' restaurant during the afternoon of Wednesday 26 May.

This will involve travel and meal costs which I have tried to keep to a minimum, and a later finish to that day. The travel total is £7.00. The set meals range from £11-14 including starters, main and sides. Drinks are about £1.50 - £2.00 and desserts £3.00. A minimum voluntary contribution of £20.00 in total is suggested, in order for this to proceed. Change will be refunded unless students wish to leave a tip.

Sadly, it is not possible to fit all of this in during Wednesday school hours. I anticipate that students would be returning to Oakham station at 3.44 and Catmose College at approximately 3.55. Students can also exit at Melton station if parents prefer at 3.34.

This is intended as an inclusive experience. Should any one not be able to participate, then we ask that students nominate another Elective that they would enjoy doing instead. Students will need to have considered food allergies and have returned the Medical Form with full details in this regard.

I would be grateful if you would complete the form below in order to help us assess whether this proposed trip can run. Should you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to contact me via the school.

Yours sincerely

Miss S. Martin
Teacher of the Japanese Culture Elective
